DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of claims 1-18 in the reply filed on 19 October 2004 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1, 4th paragraph is confusing because the recitation of the passage of the liquid sample and entry into the membrane and liquid sample is vague. It appears that this recitation is intended to recite that the dry reagent in the non-absorbent medium is mixed with the liquid sample as the sample passes through the medium and the mixed sample is absorbed into the membrane and continues its migration to the detection site; however, the recitation is not clear.

Claim 5 uses the trademark Mylar™. It should be capitalized wherever it appears and be accompanied by the generic terminology.

Although the use of trademarks is permissible in patent applications, the proprietary nature of the marks should be respected and every effort made to prevent their use in any manner which might adversely affect their validity as trademarks.

Art Unit: 1641

Claims 1-18 are confusing with respect to the interchangeable use of "dry reagent" and "reagent". It is recommended that "dry reagent" be consistently recited to avoid confusion. The same applies to "non-absorbent medium" and "medium". It is recommended that "non-absorbent medium" be consistently recited to avoid confusion.

Claim 11, last line, "detection site" is misspelled.

Claim 12, the recitation of "the center medium" lacks antecedent support.

Claims 13 and 14, the recitation of "the subject" lacks antecedent support.

Claim 17, recitation of "the concentrate of the sugar" lacks antecedent support.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-18 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the claims define over the prior art of record because the prior art of record fails to teach or make obvious an immunochromatographic device where reagents are applied to the underside of a non-absorbent medium and the whole is adhered to a porous membrane. The closest prior art of record, US 6,180,417 B1 discloses the use of a non-absorbent medium but only in the sample application area and not for carrying dry reagents.

Art Unit: 1641

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
